

I Have Fought

János Katona

Adante

When the trump - et calls the mus - ter sing and don your war - like dress.
Gath - er clad in gold and pur - ple, skill this day is put to test!

Chorus

I have fought for the Cal - on ar - my, I have fought for the Fal - con Crown!
Our King calls and as one we join to earn our king - dom's just re - nown!

When the trumpet calls the muster
Sing and don your warlike dress.
Gather clad in gold and purple,
Skill this day is put to test!

*I have fought for the Calon army,
I have fought for the Falcon Crown!
Our King calls and as one we join to Earn our kingdom's just renown!*

When the trumpet calls the muster
Grasp your bows and clothyard shafts.
Arrows soaring to the targets
Show your ken for the archer's craft!

Chorus

When the trumpet calls the muster
Songs within our hearts we sing.
Show the world on stage your courage
As we let our voices ring!

Chorus

When the trumpet calls the muster
Craftsfolk bear their labor's love.
Competitions, shows, and classes;
Golden Falcons soar above!

Chorus

When the trumpet calls the muster
Comp'ny fourth is sped to act.
Water, soup, and homemade jerky:
They're the base of our attack!

Chorus

When the trumpet calls the muster
All of us are in the fray:
Those in armor, those without it,
March as we all win the day!
