And shines like the rising sun

Whether fighting in war or game
And proudly they fight
With such joy and delight

Chorus

Oh, her joy is so pure she lights up a room
Her smile a mile wide
And her laughter rings out
Like the church bells devout
I fight for the Lady Rose

Chorus

Oh, with beauty she walks like a peacock in pride
But humble as artist true
Her voice can quell tears
And men of their fears
She's a lady far and few

Chorus

Oh I've stood beside her 'neath silk banners high
Her army called to war
And she begged of her men
With such inspiration
To fight for their Lady Rose

Chorus

Now she stands to the side of the tournament field
Her favor upon my belt
So proudly I fight
With such joy and delight
I fight for the Lady Rose

Chorus

Oh we fight for the lady who blooms like the rose
And shines like the rising sun
Her name is so sweet
It plays in our dreams
We fight for the Lady Rose
