

The Calm in the Storm

Words and Music: Andrixos Seljukroctonis

In the land of the Proud Sa-ble Star/ The Ba-ron said we need good shade/
Pa - vi-lion was brought from a - far/ For once was Or - lan - do o - beyed.

In the land of the Proud Sable Star/
The Baron said we need good shade/
Pavilion was brought from afar/
For once was Orlando obeyed.

Chorus
*In here does all Namron belong/
In chill will it keep us all warm/
The refuge when winds blow so strong/
The calm in the rage of the storm/*

On rooftop of snowiest white/
Would artisans paint Namron's shield/
Working through day and through night/
That your glory be shown 'cross the field/

Chorus
Let new name in glory be sung/
That all of the world might know/
Even in dead Roman tongue/
Tranquillum in tempesto./

Chorus
Our prayers are now skyward sent/
Preserve, please, our baronage wise/
Let funnels stay on Namron's tent/
Rather than in Namron's skies./

Chorus

Rule Number One:

As the author of this work does not wish this piece sung from a lyrics-sheet, please do not print it in a font larger than 10 point. Please ensure that this statement accompanies all copies of these lyrics that you make.